Bible Lesson—Numbers 16:23-34

Moses did his best to serve God. Our picture shows what Moses may have looked like. He is telling the Israelites what God had to say after three men disobeyed God.

Korah, Dathan, and Abiram lied about Moses and Aaron. They were very bad and did not follow Moses. God chose Moses to be the leader so that meant they also did not follow God.

Moses and Aaron followed God. They asked God not to punish everyone for what these men did. God told Moses to talk to the people for Him. He declared punishment on the three men. The people saw that Moses served God.

The three men found out that God's punishment can really hurt. First Corinthians 10:1-13 tells us that God's punishment warns us to obey God. We should not disobey God. The Israelites found out why disobeying God is wrong. God is happy when we obey Him the way Moses did.
