Dear Boys and Girls,

God created us to love Him, praise Him, and serve Him.

In this book, we are going to learn more about serving God.

The Bible tells us about many people who served God. We will learn about some of them and the different ways they did this.

We will also read some stories about children much like you who serve God.

Sometimes it may seem hard to serve the Lord. When we trust Him and talk to Him in prayer, He will help us.

When we serve God, it pleases Him. Serving God also shows our love for Him.

I know I want to please God and show Him I love Him. I hope you do too.

TO THE TEACHER

I enjoy teaching Bible class. Spending time with the children while studying God's Word is a blessing. I find myself learning even as I teach.

Many times when the children ask questions or share their thoughts, I find myself challenged to think in new ways or dig deeper into God's Word.

Hearing the questions and thoughts of the students also helps me know if I am teaching the lesson in a clear way.

I hope you will encourage your students to share their thoughts and questions with the class. It is a good way to know what the children understand and what they may need more guidance in.

Whether you are a new teacher or an experienced one, I hope you will enjoy your time with the children. Enjoy teaching them and guiding them as we all learn more about serving our God. God bless you as you serve Him.

God or Man?

“There’s a new boy in our Bible class,” Toby told his dad. “His name is Jake. He said we don’t need to read our Bible or pray—God will lead us by how we feel. I hope Jake comes again; we had a lot of fun. I want to be his friend and do the things he does.”

Dad frowned. “We need to be careful who we follow. I read in the Bible last week that while the people of Israel were in the wilderness, some men decided they wanted to lead instead of follow Moses. God had chosen Moses to lead. Moses was following God, and the Israelites were to follow Moses. God was not pleased with the men who didn’t want to follow Him” (see Numbers 16:23-34).

“How do I know who to follow?” asked Toby.

“Do you want to follow God or man?” asked Dad.

“God,” said Toby.

“Just as God gave Moses to the people of Israel as a leader, He gave us a leader. Do you know who that is?”

“Is that Jesus?” asked Toby.

“Yes,” said Dad. “When we read our Bible and pray, God helps us know how to follow Him.”

“I want to follow God. I will read my Bible and pray,” Toby said. “Can I still be friends with Jake?”

“Of course you can,” said Dad. “Maybe you can help Jake learn to follow God.”

Toby nodded. “I will try to help Jake.”

Who Do You Follow?

Who do you want to follow? God loves us and wants what is best for us. At the top of a piece of construction paper, write “Who Do You Follow?” Cut two circles out of another piece of construction paper. Write “Man” on one and “God” on the other. Glue the two circles beside each other on the first piece of paper under “Who Do You Follow?” Draw an “X” over the one you do not want to follow. Remember to pray and ask God to help you follow Him each day.
