NO FAVORITES

BY LAURA THOMAS

Jacob had twelve sons. Can you count to twelve? That's a lot of sons! But only one was Jacob's favorite. His name was Joseph. Jacob gave Joseph a very special coat made with many colors.

What colors do you think were on Joseph's beautiful coat?

Joseph's brothers were very jealous because their father had a favorite. It made them sad and mad.

Do you think God has favorites?

No! God has no favorites. All who trust Him are His children, and He loves each one of us the same. He loves you and everyone else!

You can read the whole story in Genesis 37!

Tambourine

By Karen Kelly

Tap! Jinglejangle! Tap! Jinglejangle! Tap, tap.

Have you ever played a tambourine? It can be very fun!

Count the jinglejangles on the tambourine and write the numbers 1 – 8 on them.

The Bible tells us to praise God with tambourines and dance.

We all praise God in our own ways.

We might praise with our voices, by helping others, playing music, or reading our Bibles.

God loves us and wants to hear our praises.

Psalm 150:4-6—Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!
