“I will extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.
I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works” (Psalm 145:1-5).

God Made Me

God made me by His mighty pow'r,
So to Him I belong;
And when I mind His holy Word,
I'm pure and well and strong.

He made my eyes to see around,
He made my ears to hear;
He made my lips to speak His love,
And so to me He's dear.

He made my hands to use for Him,
To help the weak and sad;
He made my feet to run and tell
His message sweet and glad.

Bible Lesson—I Samuel 3:1-9, 19-20; 7:3-5, 10, 12

Our picture today shows Eli sitting up in bed as he speaks to Samuel. Samuel was a boy who had been given by his mother to serve God with Eli. His mother, Hannah, had prayed for a son. When Samuel was old enough, she took him to Eli and gave him back to God.

One night as Samuel was sleeping, he heard a voice calling. Three times he thought Eli was calling him, so he went to his bedside. Eli told Samuel to tell the Lord that he was ready to listen. God told Samuel that He was going to judge Eli's sons because they were so wicked.

In the next battle, the Philistines killed Eli's sons and captured the ark of God. Soon the Israelites began to seek after God. They got rid of their false gods.

When the Philistines came to fight again, God caused a great thunderstorm. The confused Philistines all killed one another. When the land had peace, Samuel was the judge. He helped the people settle their differences.
