Winter's Cold and Snow

These are days of cold and snow,
Almost everywhere we go;
Up our backs the chills may steal,
But how good and spry we feel!

There is coasting we may do;
How about a ride with you?
No, I'd rather have you go
In my sled to church, you know.

God has made the seasons so
We may never weary grow
Of the heat or of the cold;
So about them I'll not scold.

Wintertime is lots of fun,
Though it makes me hop and run;
God was kind such things to make
For His living creatures' sake.

Bible Lesson—John 1:15-28

Our picture today shows a special man named John. He lived in the desert. He wore clothing made from camel hair with a leather belt. He ate locusts and wild honey.

John had a very important job. He was to tell the people of Israel about Jesus, the One who would save them from their sins. It was good news.

Even before John was born, God said a special man would come who would be a messenger. The message was “Jesus is coming. Listen to Him.”

And so, John preached about Jesus. He told people they needed to be sorry for their sins and ask God for forgiveness. He baptized them in the River Jordan—that is where he got the name “John the Baptist.”

John was always humble. He said that Jesus was the most important person—the Son of God—and everyone should listen to Him.

Today, Jesus is still the most important person—the Son of God! We still need to listen to Him.
