

FOR COMFORT AND CHALLENGE

BRENDA B. COVERT

Made to Worship

The Lord is our Creator,
And we belong to Him.
We worship Him with gratitude,
For He forgave our sin.

We bow down in the presence
Of our Almighty King,
Acknowledging His holiness;
To Him our praise we bring.

We worship with our actions,
Our voices, and our minds.
By Bible study, song, and prayer,
We leave this world behind.

Gathered with believers
Or staying home alone,
We know without a doubt our Lord
Is always on His throne.

Some Glorious Day

On that glorious day
Our wait will be over;
Oh, can you imagine
How amazed we will be?

Oh, can you imagine
That glorious day?
The absence of evil,
The presence of grace!

No more toil, no more grief,
No more sickness, no more pain—
All our scars will vanish.
Only Christ's will remain.

Awestruck with wonder,
We'll fall to our knees
And honor our Saviour
With sweet harmonies.

His scars a reminder
Of sin's dreadful cost,
and the love of our Saviour
for all who were lost.

For now, we imagine
And prayerfully say,
"Even so, Lord, come quickly.
May this be the day."