WINTER QUARTER

“They that worship [God] must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).

Cleveland, Ohio
Winter 2014-15

Dear Boys and Girls,

I wonder if winter is cold and snowy where you live. It is cold and snowy where I live.

It is fun to play outside in the winter when the weather is not too cold. It is also fun to be warm and cozy inside in the winter.

It is fun to go to Sunday school any time of the year. It is especially nice to be in a warm classroom when the snow is flying and the wind is howling!

This winter you will learn more about Jesus. You will learn how to trust Him as Saviour. You will learn how to live for Him all your life.

Welcome to winter! I have prayed for you!

Your friend,

Donna Poole

I can be a help - er

The first system of music is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment of chords. The bass staff contains a piano accompaniment of chords. The lyrics are "I can be a help - er".

For Je - sus ev - 'ry day.

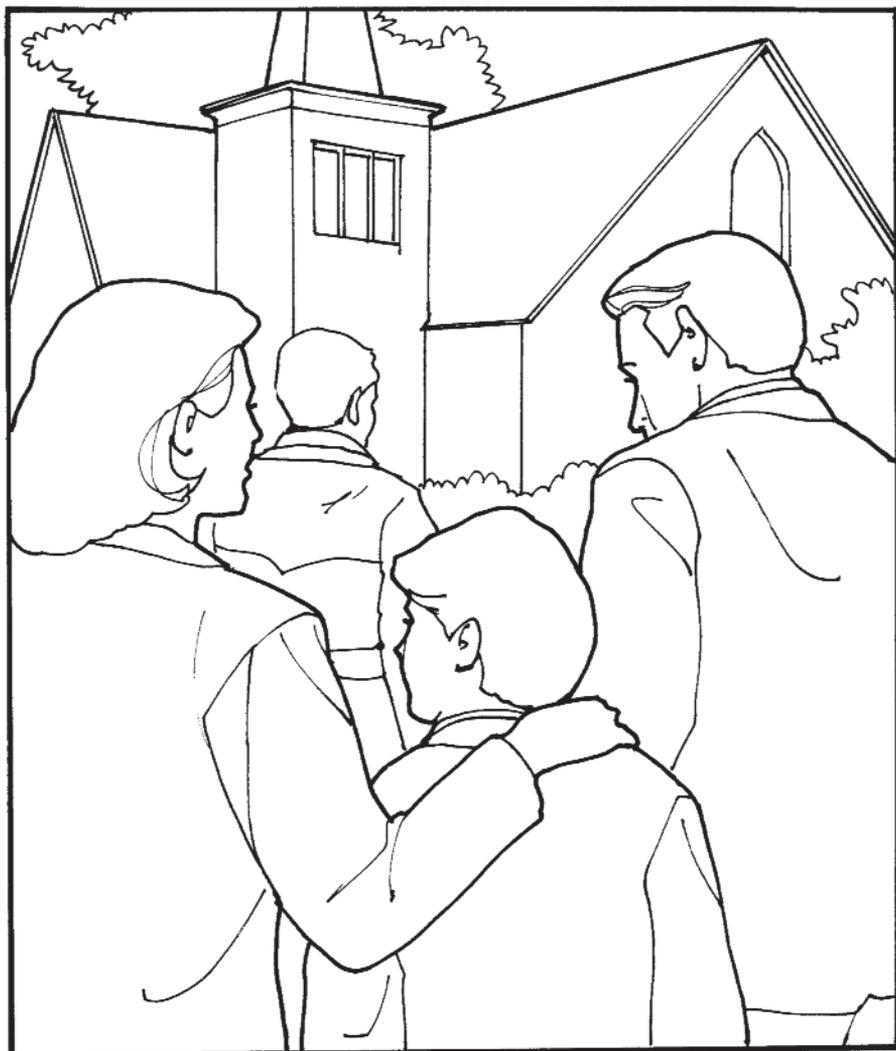

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff has a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment of chords. The bass staff has a piano accompaniment of chords. The lyrics are "For Je - sus ev - 'ry day.".

I can be a help - er

The third system of music repeats the first system's melody and accompaniment. The treble staff has a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment of chords. The bass staff has a piano accompaniment of chords. The lyrics are "I can be a help - er".

At home, at church, at play.

The fourth system of music continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff has a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment of chords. The bass staff has a piano accompaniment of chords. The lyrics are "At home, at church, at play.".

What Boys and Girls Like to Do

Play in snow, go skating too,
Color with crayons a sky so blue,
Go to church and Sunday school—
Those are what boys and girls like to do.

Learning to Pray

“When you feel ready, you can use your own words when you pray,” Dad reminded Robbie again.

Robbie nodded. Mom had been telling him that for a few months now. Robbie wanted to keep saying the memorized prayer he had prayed since he could talk. He did not really want to learn to pray in his own words. He did not know how to pray until Johnnie and his parents got hurt in a car accident.

Johnnie’s family was on the way home from church one snowy Sunday. The car skidded on a curve and hit a tree. Johnnie and his parents were in the hospital. Only Johnnie’s little sister was not hurt.

Robbie’s parents got the phone call about the accident right before they sat down to Sunday dinner.

“May I pray for the meal in my own words?” Robbie asked.

“Of course,” Dad answered.

“I don’t know what to say,” Robbie said.

“When we pray, we thank God. We praise Him. We tell Him we are sorry for our sins. We ask Him for what we need. We pray in Jesus’ name,” Dad replied.

Robbie nodded. “Dear God,” he prayed, “thank You for this food and that You can do anything. Thank You that Jesus died for my sins. I am sorry for my sin. I am sorry I get angry. Please help Johnnie and his parents to get better. I love You. In Jesus’ name. Amen.”

“Was that OK?” Robbie asked.

“That was just fine, Robbie,” Dad said. “That was just fine.”

Worship God's Son

Lesson: Hebrews 1:1-9

God created Adam and Eve. He walked and talked with them in the garden every night. When Adam and Eve sinned, they had to leave the garden. God no longer came down to speak to them every night.

God did not stop trying to speak to people. For many years, God spoke to prophets who gave His words to people. Sometimes the people listened to the prophets. Sometimes the people did not listen to the prophets.

God then spoke to people through His Son, Jesus. Jesus left heaven and came to earth. He was born as a baby. He grew up. He told people what God the Father wanted them to know. He showed people what God is like. Jesus is God the Son.

Jesus died on the cross to take the punishment for the sin of the world. He rose again. He went back to heaven. He sits next to God the Father. Because of Jesus, we know all that God the Father wants us to know.

Jesus is better than prophets. He is better than angels. Angels also told people God's messages. Angels are wonderful, but they are not God. Jesus is God the Son. Angels worship Jesus.

Angels do many things we cannot do. They are God's servants. Jesus is God's Son. Jesus will come back to earth someday. He will rule as King forever. His king-
